

CAMPUS COMPASS

CAMPUS RULES & TRANSPORT

Metro & Transport:

The campus is situated near Yelahanka. The best way to travel into the city center is taking a cab/auto or a BMTC bus to the nearest Metro Station (often the Green line extension, or towards Swami Vivekananda Road on the Purple line if you are heading east). Auto/cab takes about 15-20 minutes (costs about 500 to city center) and to major transit hubs it costs around ₹150-₹200.

Surprising Rules:

- PDA: Public Display of Affection is strictly monitored. Hugging is fine, but anything more will attract the guards and potentially a fine (5k) but something even worse is that they call your parents so basically you are in trouble.
- Dress Code: No shorts or highly revealing clothes in the academic blocks. Save them for the hostel and sports grounds. (maintain decency as for rest you can wear whatever)

Mistakes that get you in trouble:

Arguing with the CSO, missing the in-time repeatedly, or being caught with restricted items (alcohol/cigarettes) in your hostel room.

Library:

The library is pretty cool since it opened recently, 2 floors of library and the other 2 floors is for study. It usually runs from 9:00 AM to 8:00 PM (Monday to Saturday), with reference sections sometimes staying open later during exam weeks
