

HIDDEN GEMS

Best study spots

The library is an obvious favourite, especially the quieter upper floors. If you like studying with a coffee nearby, the food court during non-rush hours isn't a bad choice either.

Best places to hang out

Hostel common areas, sports complex, food court, late-night walks around campus and random bench conversations. Some of the best memories happen in the most unexpected places.

Best food on campus

Everyone has their own favourites, so don't trust anyone who says they've found the best dish. Try everything once—you'll eventually discover your comfort meal.
